

EL TORO HIGH SCHOOL SATURDAY SCHOOL MATRIX

All Saturday School assignments are expected to be served on the assigned date unless there is a compelling reason that prevents a student from attending, in which case that student may reschedule the Saturday School (rescheduling must be done in advance of the assigned date and is permitted only once per semester). A student may receive no more than two (2) scheduled Saturday Schools.

BEHAVIOR	ACTION
Arrange to reschedule Saturday School	Reschedule Saturday School (no consequence)
Arrange to reschedule a rescheduled Saturday School	One day of In-House Suspension and Reschedule Saturday School
Any rescheduling issues beyond two occasions	May result in one or more In-House or Home Suspension or additional discipline.
Miss Saturday School without parent notification	One day of In-House Suspension and Reschedule Saturday School
Removed from Saturday School for disciplinary reasons	One day of In-House Suspension and Reschedule Saturday School
Miss a rescheduled Saturday School without parent notification	May result in one or more In-House or Home Suspension or additional discipline.
A student with two pending assigned Saturday Schools violates school policy.	One day of In-House suspension in addition to having to serve the two assigned Saturday Schools.
A student with two pending assigned Saturday Schools and an In-House suspension violates school policy.	May result in one or more In-House or Home Suspension or additional discipline.

Like all SVUSD schools, El Toro High School's discipline rules are guided by SVUSD Board Policy 5144, in addition to the California Education Code, pursuant to Sections 35291.5, Sections 48980, and Section 48981.