

STUDY OF TV & FILM

MISSION VIEJO HIGH SCHOOL COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

Young filmmakers will learn through hands-on activities the foundations of video and television production. Students will write, plan, shoot and edit their own short films and projects throughout the year.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this course, students will create and learn in both group and individual projects based on fundamentals and principles within history, writing, development, and present-day aspects of filmmaking and television including classic 3-act structure, visual storytelling, and technical skills.

This course articulates with Saddleback College & meets the requirements for admission to UC and CSU

F

To enroll or learn more about this course, contact your counselor or email Mr. Zelinger at Jacob.Zelinger@svusd.org

Saddleback Valley
Unified School District

Career Technical Education