

WHEN YOU TRUST KIDS, THEY TRUST THEMSELVES

At Steve & Kate's Camp, we believe that when you trust kids, they develop the confidence to trust themselves. So we built a summer camp that gives kids the freedom to make their own choices and learn to use their judgment. After 40 years, we've learned that there is one sure-fire way to unlock your child's potential. It's called getting out of their way.
